TORONTO CONCERT ORCHESTRA

SATURDAY, AUGUST 6TH, 2011*ECHO BEACH – TORONTO*Doors: 3:00PM*Show: 4:00PM***FREE ADMISSION****

Toronto Concert Orchestra, conducted by Music Director Kerry Stratton performs Beethoven's Symphony No 7 on Saturday, August 6th at 4:00 pm on the Echo Beach Stage at Ontario Place.

Toronto Concert Orchestra is Toronto's official "homeless" orchestra. During the 2011-2012 season the TCO will be performing in a variety of local venues, to include; Ontario Place, Phoenix Concert Theatre, Windsor Arms Hotel, The Courthouse, George Weston Recital Hall, Glenn Gould Studio and Roy Thompson Hall. A live recording is scheduled for April 2012 at the Glenn Gould Studio. The TCO will continue its endeavor to break audience boundaries by scheduling performances in venues considered unconventional for classical music concerts. A recent TCO performance of Dvorak's New World Symphony and Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No 2 at the Phoenix Concert Theatre was an innovative success and an exhilarating experience for both the audience and orchestra.

For the 2011-12 season the TCO will hold its rehearsals, as open rehearsals, at the Windsor Arms Hotel in the downtown Bay/Bloor area. Admission is secured by advance booking only via email requests to invitations@torontoconcertorchestra.com. Seating is limited and available on a first come first serve basis.

About Echo Beach

Echo Beach, Toronto's first fully-licensed outdoor beach concert venue is located on the East Island of Ontario Place, just east of the Molson Canadian Amphitheatre. The 5,000-capacity venue features a real sand beach and offers guests a spectacular view of the downtown Toronto skyline. It is a general admission venue with no reserved seating and allows fans to get up-close-and-personal to their favorite bands. Echo Beach made a splash with critics and concert-goers alike during its inaugural concert on June 3, 2011 featuring Swedish electro-pop sensation Robyn.

"We're thrilled to host these four headliners at our exciting new outdoor concert venue," said John Tevlin, General Manager of Ontario Place. "Where else in Toronto can you enjoy a free concert with your feet in the sand and a drink in your hand?"

About Ontario Place

Ontario Place is a 96-acre premiere waterfront park located in downtown Toronto. Celebrating its 40th anniversary in 2011, Ontario Place features exhilarating rides and attractions including the newly renovated Cinesphere, now in IMAX® 3D. Ontario Place was recently awarded the "Best Seasonal Attraction in the GTA" by readers of City Parent magazine in July 2011. Froster™ Soak City waterpark will soon add Topsy Turvy dual waterslides, plus a new spa pool and sand beach right at the water's edge, overlooking Lake Ontario.
